

BROKER POLICY

The UAA holds the right to withhold or alter Gator Booster membership level benefits for any account that it deems a broker account. These benefits include but are not limited to the following:

Season Ticket Holder relocation appointment times

Advance single game purchases

Away game ticket purchases including limits and seat location

Post-Season game purchases including limits and seat location

Neutral site game purchases including limits and seat location